Behind Closed Doors by B. A. Paris

Such a good book
Not the type I usually read but a friend recommended it and it was amazing
I swear though, I have never hated a fictional character so much

why are uppercase and lowercase letters a thing? why don't we just write in all caps or all lc.? it's basically just western languages that do this? is this another relic of our eurocentric mentality and world? if so, i reject this way of life

The Doldrums by Nicholas Gannon

One of my sisters bought it for me. I love books like this one Astrophysics for people in a hurry- written by Neil Degrasse Tyson. Exactly what it sounds like.

Watership Down is a good book. If you've read Warriors, it has kind of the same concept, but with rabbits. It's by Richard Adams. There's a show based on the book on Netflix, too. I'd recommend that over the original cartoon.

Bull by David Elliot. Its the story of the Minotaur but not??? It's retold in such a brilliant way and it's such beautiful poetry that everyone should read it.

If you like that, I suggest reading Redwall by Brian Jaques. It's inspired by Watership Down
